Friends Elizabeth Jennings

I fear it's very wrong of me And yet I must admit When someone offers friendship I want the whole of it. I don't want everybody else To share my friends with me. At least, I want one special one, Who, indisputably Likes me much more than all the rest, Who's always on my side. Who never cares what others say, Who lets me come and hide Within his shadow, in his house -It doesn't matter where -Who lets me simply be myself, Who's always, always there.

Trees are great Roger McGough

Trees are great, they just stand and wait They don't cry when they're teased They don't eat much and they seldom shout Trees are easily pleased.

Trees are great, they like to congregate For meetings in the park
They dance and sway, they stay all day
And talk till well after dark.

Trees are great, they accept their fate
When it's pouring down with rain
They don't wear macs, it runs off their backs
But you never hear them complain.

So answer me please, if there weren't any trees Where would naughty boys climb? Where would lovers carve their names? Where would little birds nest? Where would we hang the leaves?
